

Privacy policy

How we use and protect any information you give us

Newsletter mailing list

If you join our mailing list, we will keep you up to date with our courses, events and news. but we promise not to send too many emails.

When you sign up to our newsletter, we request only your name and email. Your information will be stored securely on Mailchimp and we will never pass your personal information on to anyone else. You can unsubscribe from our mailing list at any time by clicking the unsubscribe link at the bottom of our newsletters.

Courses and events

If you sign up for a course or events, we need to collect certain information about you, for example your contact details; for some courses / events we may request an emergency contact and details of any special requirements or health issues you may have; and we may also collect relevant skills and knowledge to inform course design and delivery. This information is used solely for the purposes they were obtained.

Your information is kept on our secure database and will be destroyed after 12 months.

Participants on the full PDC are offered a 1-year membership to the Permaculture Association of Britain on successful completion of the course. We will ask for your permission before passing your details to the membership officer at the Permaculture Association. We will not share your details with anyone else.

Any questions?

If you have any questions about your personal data, email contact.nonstuff@gmail.com